Shawn Laughlin

Creative Director / Principal Designer

Shawn Laughlin has a background as a filmmaker, and she brings that trained eye for color, composition, motion, and depth, to all of her designs for Caskata products. Underlying her artistic vision is a belief that simplicity combined with restraint create enduring pieces that can last - and be loved - for a lifetime. Simple, strong, graphic beauty and negative space that figures prominently in the frame are hallmarks of Caskata's style.

Having spent her childhood between the sights and sounds, angles and curves of the world's most cosmopolitan cities and the sand and surf of the quintessential summer paradise, Shawn's designs borrow from New York, Paris, and Nantucket in their sensibility. The lush botanicals, creatures from the sea, and even the abstract compositions are transformed through Laughlin's singular perspective. The resulting designs are sophisticated, unique, and often display a subtle whimsy and sense of humor.

"Simple elegance and understatement is always in fashion, really. If you look back through the ages, many of the things we love have a compositional sensitivity that transcends what we think of as a trend, yet in their time they fit perfectly with notions of contemporary." An awareness of this historical context allows her to design confidently with a refined contemporary aesthetic.
